

WE ARE PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE THE DATE OF THE NEXT FRETWORK FORUM

WEDNESDAY 7th FEBRUARY 2018

Topics to be covered:

Updates on critical chemicals.

Updates on the FFR and some views on possible actions.

A lot has been written about old review options for the FFR and the burning behaviour of UK upholstery so we will review what has been said and what we think of the ideas.

Toxicity, both in fires and of chemicals, seems to be a topic at present so we will try to inform the debate where possible.

Details of the actual programme will follow shortly. I hope to have fixed a list of speakers and topics before we all go home for the Xmas holiday.

Wednesday 7th February 2018. Starting at 10:30 and finishing by about 16:00.
A finger-buffet lunch will be included.
